Stephen –

Before we grant a further extension can you please let us know which Defendants you represent and who is representing any Defendants unrepresented by you and Attorney Kurtzman? We granted two initial extensions on the basis of you speaking for (if not representing) all Defendants and have yet to get clarification on this point.

Best,

Andy

Jeff, thanks. I would be happy to speak, if desired by Steve, about venue.

Steve, my firm will be representing those defendants which Jeff is not. Do you have any objection to our defendants' reply date coinciding with those defendants represented by Jeff?

Thanks

Steve, it was nice to speak with you this morning. As related, my firm represents Gary Parzych, Ryan Uszenski, Can Man, LLC, Finland Leasing Co., Inc. and Eugene T. Parzuych, Inc. in the above-referenced adversary proceeding.

In reviewing the complaint, I note that, while the plaintiff alleges that the bankruptcy court has jurisdiction over the adversary proceeding, she demands a jury trial and does not consent to the entry of a final judgment by that court. For this and other reasons, I suggested that efficiency may be served by transferring the case to the district court. I have not discussed this issue with Steve Packman, who is copied here.

Secondly, I requested an extension of my clients' deadline to answer or move with respect to the complaint to September 15, as to which you graciously agreed.

If you and your partner wish to discuss the venue issue, please let Steve and me know. Thanks.

Jeffrey Kurtzman, Esquire
